

NJ's Do Not Call List has been an absolute blessing.... i work full time and the very last thing i want to do at night when i come home is to argue with telemarketers on the phone!!!! these phone calls are so very annoying and their aggressive tactics are unwarranted... if anything, the federal law should be bolstered to meet the strict standards of the NJ law.